THE UNITED METHODIST SOCIAL PRINCIPLES — Some subjects are difficult to talk about anywhere with anybody. Try starting a genuine and respectful discussion on gun control, abortion, capital punishment or prayer in the schools. It isn't easy! Tempers can flare, and friendship ties can become frayed and torn. Despite the challenges, we will gather for four Wednesday nights, 6:30pm until 7:25pm in the fellowship hall, and have respectful, thoughtful dialogue about some of the hot issues which assail our country. We will look at the United Methodist Social Principles and practice discussing some of them. Possible subjects include abortion rights, human sexuality, war and peace, the rights of illegal immigrants and gun control. We will start on April 10. – Paul Wood

"CHURCH HISTORY MADE VISIBLE" TOUR AT FIRST UMC ON APRIL 20 — The SC Methodist Historical Society will meet at First UMC Saturday, April 20. We will host the Society as it holds a short business meeting in our fellowship hall. Then we will be honored to present an historical tour beginning at 10:45am in our sanctuary. Cheryl Postlewait and Paul Wood will show Society members and other tour participants how we have made church history visible at FUMC. The tour will include stops at Old St. David's, Laney Landing (where Francis Asbury crossed the Great Pee Dee during his first journey into South Carolina) and Wesley UMC on Greene Street. Before the tour's conclusion (around 12:45am), tour participants will be introduced to Cheraw's award-winning cellphone tour. We are all welcome to participate.

WEDNESDAY AT THE FIRST (WATF) — Just a reminder that WATF will not be held this Wednesday, April 3.
