

THE CONNECTION

CHURCH...BUSINESS-BOTH ARE NECESSARY!

Throughout the second half of the month of January, and filtering into the first half of the month of February, First UMC leaders and servants have been, and continue to be, knee-deep in church business, administration, and organization. Every Tuesday and Thursday evening over a six-week time span, our Ministry Committees have and/or will be meeting to: secure committee assignments, set ministry goals, and calendarize ministry activities for the 2019 year!

In our efforts to be a more organized, Laid congregation, we are embarking on an exciting future!

Our Nominations Committee is filling in some gaps which have become open since the Fall recruitment campaign.

Our Trustees Committee is in the midst of delegating their various tasks so that YOU the people, will know who specifically to contact when facility issues arise. Our Trustees are also celebrating certain improvements which have been made recently—a new roof on the Men's Hut which was fully paid through insurance monies; the exterior/interior painting project of the Sanctuary wing which has been partially funded by a generous donation; along with repairs to the HVAC systems in both the Sanctuary and the Parlor. Much more is to be done to keep our facility running smoothly, but please be sure to thank your First UMC Trustees for their committed legwork in tackling these huge responsibilities.

Our Staff Parish Relations Committee will immediately begin work on securing a Music Minister, as well as outlining a strategy which will help our staff workflow run more smoothly.

And as we move through the month of February, meetings of the Missions, Christian Education, Evangelism, Worship, and Parsonage Committees are scheduled also—for the purposes of identifying team members, placing priorities on multiple church activities, and brainstorming about church goals most especially needing to be addressed in 2019.

Hopefully you have received a letter (or two!) inviting you to attend the meeting of your designated Service Area. I hope you will plan to be there and bring your ideas, your input, and your much-desired feedback to those meetings. We need each and every one of you to share your gifts and your graces with and for the ministries and people of First UMC. Your past service is so very much appreciated...and I am abundantly thankful for your continued willingness to serve in our future endeavors!

Church...business...although none of us likes to admit it, if the truth be told, most of us would confess that..."we want the church to run like a business, but we don't want the church to 'be' a business"! Each and every one of us can help with that! Let's work together on our diverse tasks...let's be good stewards of our facility...and in everything we do and say, let's do it and say it in a spirit of Love.

From the First Church Child Development Ministry

The Child Development Ministry is continuing to remain stable with enrollment fluctuating between 60 – 65 children. We have openings for each age group except two year olds. That is where the biggest demand is at this time.

Staffing has stabilized with the hiring of some talented and caring ladies. I believe we have the best teachers and caregivers in the area. They truly give of themselves every day. I am so thankful for each family we serve and each caregiver who is part of this ministry.

With Valentine's Day coming, the children will be filling the walls and halls with their crafts. Be sure to come by when you're at church to see their handiwork.

As we celebrate this month of love, let us remember 1 John 4:19 "We love because He first loved us."

In Him,
Mimi

Resolutions Still Going Strong?

If you made a resolution to try to stay fit in 2019, First UMC is doing her best to help you out! Every Tuesday at 11am in the FUMC Fellowship Hall, Betsy Vaughn from the Chesterfield County YMCA leads an hour long exercise class for all willing participants!

There is no charge for the class, and weights, tension bands, along with other necessary exercise equipment is provided. Sturdy chairs are also available for those with balance and stability issues.

You are invited to wear comfortable clothes and shoes as you will be stretching, bending, and marching to the tune of motivational music. You are also invited to bring a water bottle and sweat towel if you so desire.

If you care to give a donation at any time to the exercise class, please mark your gift: Adult Ministries/Exercise Class.

Hope to see you Tuesdays at 11am!

What Is Ahead for the Church of Jesus Christ in the Future?

That is the very question we are tackling in our weekly T.G.I.F. study! Using Andy Stanley's resource...Irresistible...we are taking a truthful look at what the Christian Church used to be...what it is now...and what it needs to be in the future for it to continue!

In our small but mighty group, we have discussed traditions/rituals/practices which the church has held for decades...which of these needs to be maintained...and which of these needs to be discarded!

We have also examined activities within the church which have stood the test of time and continue to be valued by Christian believers still today.

As we continue on with this Study throughout the month of February, we will examine the pros and cons of church decisions, both past and present, which have contributed to the popularity, as well as the demise, of the Christian church over the years.

And finally, through the lens of abundant Scriptural examples, we will strategize about how we can continue to be agents for positive change within the Church of Jesus Christ—which we each so greatly love!

To get in on the discussion, please join us every Friday morning at 10am in the Fred Harris Sunday school room.

Who Shall I Be?

Daughter of Eve...student of Rabbi Jesus...member of God's "A" team...faith warrior...as a female child of God, a woman's identity, and purpose is diverse...and puzzling!

Throughout the month of February, our Women's Bible study will continue to meet every Thursday afternoon to examine...and perhaps, "narrow down", what our purpose might be in our individual and corporate quest to serve God as willing disciples!

Upcoming sessions include discussion on: our role as "eizers"; ways in which Christian women can be strong and simultaneously gentle role models in all areas of society; ways in which women can be supportive of one another amidst the battles and struggles of daily life; and ultimately, how we women can challenge ourselves to be even stronger warriors for the cause of Jesus Christ in the world!

If you would like to join us and add your input to these conversations, please gather every Thursday afternoon at 2pm in the Fred Harris Sunday school room.

An "Official" Welcome To Weight Watchers

As you may be aware, a "local" group from Weight Watchers has been meeting at First UMC every Tuesday night. Recently, Weight Watchers "national" has requested that First UMC become the host site for a larger, regional gathering of Weight Watchers in Chesterfield County. Consequently, First UMC will now be hosting a 50 – member group of Weight Watchers clients every Tuesday from 4:30-7:00pm in our Fellowship Hall. In conjunction with these meetings, Weight Watchers will also have marketing materials and products available on-site. Please be welcoming of this new group as we extend an invitation of neighborly Christian outreach to them. Questions? Please talk to Pastor Kim.

MARCH

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

Monday, February 18, 2019

It's Baaaacccckkkk!

Due to a wonderful response from some very willing workers, we now have a Wednesdays at the First Committee...which means that we can start back, in February, with both our dinner AND our study fellowship gatherings! While our set up/tear down/clean up Committee has volunteered to serve us each week, any time you want to come early to help set up or stay later to help clean up is fine with them! They'll never turn down good help!

While we will continue to offer our study every Wednesday up until this time, Wednesday, February 13th will be the first Wednesday when our dinner option will again be offered! We were hoping to start back with dinner on February 6, but Ms. Gennette, our cook, has an appointment in Charleston that day and it's pretty difficult to cook a meal while driving (I know, there is such a thing as a crock pot!)

So Wednesday, February 13th it is! Please be sure to look in the Sunday bulletin for the following Wednesday's menu...and then call your reservation into Angie by Noon on Tuesday, or sign up on the clipboard by the front office!

We hope to still see you at the study ONLY on January 30th and February 6th.

We thank you for considering these ministries as options for your additional financial gifts.

Memorials can be designated to go to a number of different areas.

Good Neighbor

The Men's Class at FUMC is offering a helping hand. Do you need any help to change a light bulb, clean the gutters, rake the yard, wash the car, or go to the store? Whatever your need, give us a chance to be a good neighbor to you. We're not professionals and we'll not bill you for services, but we are handy at doing many things. Our intent is not to take any work away from our local businesses and service professionals, but to simply offer a helping hand. This service is available to all FUMC members, and anyone you know who is in need of help.

You may contact Roger Wolfe at 843-537-7496.

AN EXPLANATION OF THE UPCOMING 2019 UNITED METHODIST SPECIAL GENERAL CONFERENCE

The Council of Bishops announced the call to a special General Conference on Feb. 23-26, 2019, in St. Louis, Missouri.

The special meeting of The United Methodist Church's top lawmaking assembly will be limited to acting on a report by Council of Bishops, based on the proposals from the Commission on the Way Forward. The 32-member commission, appointed by the bishops, has the charge of finding ways for the denomination to stay together despite deep differences around homosexuality.

General Conference, which usually meets every four years, is the only body that can speak for the denomination. "The Council of Bishops encourages the entire church to continue in deep, unceasing prayer for Holy Spirit breakthroughs for the Commission on a Way Forward and the Special Session of General Conference," said Dakotas-Minnesota Area Bishop Bruce Ough, the president of the Council of Bishops, in a letter released Tuesday, April 25.

The bishops said last year a special General Conference would be held in 2019, but did not issue a specific call or set the date and location.

The bishops made their announcement the same day the Judicial Council, the denomination's top court, is hearing oral arguments in a case that could affect Mountain Sky Area Bishop Karen Oliveto, who is openly gay and married to a deaconess.

The Book of Discipline, the denomination's governing document approved by General Conference, bans same-gender weddings and "self-avowed practicing" gay clergy. However, debate over those rules has intensified recently.

In July last year, the Western Jurisdiction elected and consecrated Oliveto, who was at the time the senior pastor of Glide Memorial Church in San Francisco. Also in the months since last year's General Conference, a number of conferences voted not to conform with church restrictions related to ministry with LGBTQ individuals.

Meanwhile, a group of United Methodists has formed the Wesleyan Covenant Association, a member-based network for congregations that regard the church's teachings on homosexuality as part of Christian orthodoxy. At its first meeting, that group urged the Way Forward Commission to either find a way to hold church members accountable for the church's provisions on homosexuality or prepare for a church split. The Wesleyan Covenant Association is set to hold its second meeting April 28-29.

The Commission on a Way Forward includes two leaders of the Wesleyan Covenant Association as well as at least three openly gay members. All told, the commission includes eight bishops, 11 laity, 11 elders and two deacons from nine countries. The group is currently looking at ways to loosen the church's structure.

The special General Conference session would use the same delegates as General Conference 2016 unless annual conferences choose to elect new delegates.

The Commission on General Conference, which plans the lawmaking assemblies, has set the delegate number at 864 — about 58 percent from the United States and 30 percent from Africa. The remaining delegates are from the Philippines, Europe and Eurasia as well as 10 from "concordat" churches with which The United Methodist Church has formal relationships.

The St. Louis location was unexpected in the Missouri Conference, which learned late April 24 it would be hosting the special General Conference.

"While it comes as a surprise to us, we look forward to offering the church and her guests radical hospitality in the days leading up to and throughout the special session," the Missouri Conference said in announcing the gathering.

Sara Hotchkiss, business manager of the United Methodist General Conference, said the St. Louis Convention Center and hotel packages were reasonably priced and able to meet United Methodists' needs.

"Meet St. Louis, the Convention and Visitor Bureau, has a volunteer corps that can assist in some of the areas that are often done by a local host committee," she added. "With limited planning time, this was a benefit from a host city."

Last year, Moses Kumar — the chief executive of the General Council on Finance and Administration — told church leaders that a special General Conference session would cost $3.39 million for two days or $4.12 million for three days. Kumar is also the treasurer of General Conference.

To pay for such a gathering, Kumar recommended shortening the 2020 General Conference in Minneapolis by the number of days used for any special General Conference session.

Last year, by a vote of 428 to 405, General Conference decided not to take up any legislation related to homosexuality and instead authorized the bishops to form the Commission on a Way Forward. The vote came after rumors of a potential church split reached a fever pitch.

The bishops do not have a vote at General Conference. However, they do have the authority under the Book of Discipline to call for a special session of the General Conference, a possibility last considered to address the worldwide economic crisis of 2008. The bishops in 2009 ultimately opted not to call a session that time.

Since The United Methodist Church formed in 1968, it has only held a General Conference once outside of the normal four-year schedule. That was in 1970, and its purpose was to organize the merger of Methodist and Evangelical United Brethren denominations.

The hope is the special General Conference will help strengthen the denomination that will celebrate its 50th anniversary next year.

South Carolina United Methodists' 40 Days of Shared Prayers For A Future With Hope

Bishop L. Jonathan Holston invites South Carolina United Methodists to join him in 40 days of shared prayer each day from Monday, Jan. 14, through Friday, Feb. 22, leading up to the 2019 Special Session of the General Conference, scheduled for Feb. 23-26 in St. Louis, Missouri. Together each day, let us join one another in prayer, believing that God hears every word.

Each Sunday: Gracious and loving God, we give thanks for your presence in our lives and the promise that you have plans for us to prosper and not be harmed. Continue your good work in our families and our lives. Help us to understand how we can make a difference – in our church, in our community, and in our world – as your instrument of hope. Amen.

Each Monday: Merciful God, help us to see the many opportunities before us to serve you by serving our neighbors. Open our hearts and our hands to both receive your grace and to offer it to everyone we meet. Amen.

Each Tuesday: Almighty God, we confess to you that we have not loved you with our whole hearts. We have often failed to be an obedient church when we have not heard the cry of the needy. Free us for joyful obedience that, where there are corridors of shame, despair and want, we might create corridors of faith, hope and love that glorify you. Amen.

Each Wednesday: Gracious God, I know that you are the potter and I am the clay. Mold me and make me into a disciple of Jesus Christ. Show me how to offer your grace and mercy in ways that transform the world. Amen.

Each Thursday: Lord, we know that when we make space in our hearts for you, Jesus redeems the broken pieces of our lives. We ask you, O God, that you will be at work in us and through us to make a difference in the lives of the hurting and the hungry in our midst. Amen.

Each Friday: God, we thank you for the gift of faith that carries us through those times when we cannot yet see what you are doing in our midst. Help us to walk in your light and to be a light for others. Amen.

Each Saturday: God of Heaven and Earth, as your humble servants, we know that the needs around the world and around the corner are great. Open our eyes so that we can see how to use the gifts you have given us to serve our neighbors and be in mission in the community and beyond. And give us the strength and perseverance to get started in this holy work. Amen.
