

THE CONNECTION

BEST IN 2019

Part of my job as your pastor is to help us all grow in our Christian faith. For me, that's all about making disciples for Jesus Christ to transform the world! So here is my idea for how we, together, can continue to do that throughout 2019...

In all of our ministries, let's strive for a level higher than...just mediocre.

We don't like sports teams that win just half of their games, right?

And we don't want our kids and/or grand-kids to be satisfied with only making "c's" in school, right?

And neither do we want to stand before our Maker in contentment as we say...well I acted like a Christian at least half the time!" right?

Think about this...when we go to God to ask for help...when we go to God to give us hope...when we go to God with a request for healing...we expect God's all sufficient, totally amazing, 100% response, right?

Well, likewise...I believe that God wants our best...and our utmost...

God has blessed First United Methodist Church with so many gifts...gifts that are consistently given through our core of committed volunteers. Did you know that we have multiple active Sunday School groups who reach out to those in need in our community, in a variety of ways, every month? Did you know that we have a choir who volunteers their time and their talents to lead us in praise and worship every Sunday? Did you know that we have enthusiastic children's and youth groups who play and study and fellowship together on a regular basis for the purposes of Christian growth? Did you know that we have individuals offering consistent behind-the-scenes legwork every day to keep all of the functions of this astounding facility running smoothly? And did you know, that we have people generously giving of their financial resources on a regular basis to assure the continuation of both the physical and spiritual ministries of this church?

Radically changing people's lives is what Jesus meant by offering salvation and by sharing the Good News and by practicing servanthood. So it worries me when we spend more time...sometimes...obsessing over things that are NOT part of the Good News. Additionally, it concerns me when we...sometimes...seem to be too easily satisfied being only "so-so" in our faith. I don't know about you, but I don't care to be remembered for offering God's...only "somewhat"...amazing grace!

So...beginning on January 1, 2019...I am going to dedicate myself, 100%, to turning up the joy and the enthusiasm in our shared ministry at First UMC! And of course, I encourage you to do the same! I am excited that some of this "new best" is already revealing itself! Because of your long standing dedication to shining the light of Christ in this community, our leadership team is looking at past successes along with possible new endeavors to keep our "ministry energy" soaring into the future! It is quite clear that ours is a church that is dedicated to transforming lives in the name of Christ...and thus I hope we can explore even newer ways to brighten that impact in the year ahead.

Please know that everything I do as a pastor...from checking emails to preparing sermons to praying for each of you...is done from the fullness of my heart. And every ministry event that we plan, either for the enjoyment of our own fellowship and/or for the benefit of the community, is fueled by a shared passion to make disciples...to grow disciples...and to empower disciples...disciples who are 100% dedicated to Jesus Christ! If you have any ideas and/or feedback on how we can do this...at our best...please let me know. If you would like to join a specific committee or ministry team in order to give more of your best, please contact me.

My hope is that by becoming even more familiar with God's gift of 100% grace, we will continue to move into the future-our future-as faithful followers who are 100% committed to bringing God delight...by serving others with our best!

Enthusiastically-

From the First Church Child Development Ministry

In January, there will be some changes in the Child Development Ministry. We have 3 new teachers starting. There are 2 new two year old teachers, Teresa Moore and Tiffanie Phillips. Ms. Kerri Davis will be the caregiver in a new infant room. Ms. Kerri worked at the CDM a couple of years ago with two year olds, but left for health reasons. We are so happy to welcome her back.

The CDM will be growing in January with more infants enrolling. We are excited to welcome new families into our family.

We are so glad to have Mrs. Allison Becker working with us through the SC Infant and Toddler Project. She has come in to observe and has given us a lot of wonderful suggestions to make us the best we can be for the children. We are looking forward to continuing this training and making FCCDM the best child care in town.

Come visit us and see all the good things we have going on.

In Him,
Mimi

Walkie Talkies...Winter Wonderland

Although our numbers have been slimmer over the past couple of weeks due to the "colder" temperatures our Walkie Talkies group continues to gather for exercise and fellowship.

Our Tuesday group meets at the Cheraw State Park, right across from the golf course at the House on the Hill. Our two selected routes are either the "park road" out to the trailhead or the "back nine" golf cart path. We meet at 7:30am and walk for about an hour.

Our Thursday group meets at Arrowhead Park off of State Road in Cheraw. This route offers a flatter trek, and the monotony of "round and round the circle" is overcome by wonderful discussion and laughter among our participants. Plus...the new landscape and grounds project provides much "new beauty" to enjoy and appreciate all around the track! We meet in the parking lot by the Memorial Stone at 7:30am.

Please join us on one...or both...days!

Friday Bible Study—Thank God!

Once upon a time, there was a version of the Christian faith worth living and dying for. It was a version of the church that believers in the first century found...irresistible. And this version of the church not only survived...it thrived!!! Would you like to have a faith like that...a faith that is...irresistible...a faith that is capable of turning the world upside down?

You are invited ...every Friday morning at 10am...to a Bible Study discussion which will help us to live out a faith that is not just...interesting...but irresistible! Irresistible enough to...go global!

Irresistible enough to...re-center the universe! Irresistible enough to...re-prioritize first things first! Irresistible enough to...offer all things new!

Here's a question to ponder...why doesn't everyone in America go to church? Perhaps it's because our modern version of faith is easy to both...resist and dismiss? Perhaps it's because we're too caught up in what's in it for us rather than what love requires of us?

Do you have a desire to change those answers?

Why not?

We know it's possible!

After all...there's a manger and a cross which make it possible...along with an amazing promise of everlasting life!

Please join us every Friday at 10am for our TGIF study...Irresistible!

Study begins January 11th.

Please note the time change of one half hour earlier.

Women's Bible Study—Thursdays 2pm

Before Adam and Eve sinned, they would never have questioned their purpose. After all, their lives were consumed with loving God and each other. They were living out the purpose of every man and woman ever created. But when sin entered the world, so too, did questions...the most primal of all being...what is my purpose? Why am I here?

Even for those of us who love God, we often question what our purpose is. Perhaps that is because we have confused purpose with "what we do", rather than "who we are". When God walked and talked with Adam and Eve, the delight they all experienced was in the relationship...not in a long list of tasks well done.

One of the legacies of sin is that we all experience a vacuum inside. Even in our best moments, there is a sense that "there has to be more". Our natural tendency, especially as women, is to try and fill this void with "doing" something. Even if we are already over-committed, we try to fit in "one more thing" which ends up making us feel worn out. While living a life of purpose may require all we have, it is not intended to leave us burned out, dissatisfied, or feeling distanced from God.

So how, then, do we truly define a life of purpose?

Please join us every Thursday afternoon at 2pm to answer that question... and many more!

Study starts January 10th. Please contact Pastor Kim with any questions.

Please Give Your Support, Your Care, and Your Love

On Thursday, December 13th, the FUMC Staff Parish Relations Committee Chairperson, Robert Calhoun, along with Pastor Kim, met with Congregational Care Director Sara Sanderson to discuss some upcoming changes related to her current Staff position. The proposed changes voted upon by the FUMC SPRC includes transitioning Sara into a Part Time Staff position entitled: Director of Nurture and Fellowship. Within this new capacity, the position responsibilities would include, and be limited to, the following:

- coordinate existing lay visitation and nurture ministry
- assist, by appointment only, members of the Cheraw Community who are in need of financial assistance and/or other daily needs
- serve as the Staff liaison for FUMC's monthly outreach and fellowship activities, in coordination and cooperation with the various ministry committees hosting the event.

This new Staff position would be exercised within a 12 hour work week, with Sara still being available on the church campus 3 hours per day, 4 days a week.

The FUMC SPRC thought, discussed at length, and prayed hard over this decision, ultimately coming up with a plan that was in the best interest of both Sara and FUMC.

Back in October, 2018, the District Superintendent strongly advised this re-structuring of Sara's role based upon the responsibilities and duties which will be placed on Sara over the upcoming months, by both the Hartsville District Committee on Ordained Ministry as well as the South Carolina UMC Board of Ordained Ministry, in conjunction with Sara's journey within the Candidacy Process on the road to Ordained Ministry. These duties and responsibilities of this Process were re-visited by both Sara and FUMC again in November, in preparation for FUMC's unanimous "support vote" of Sara's ministry journey at Charge Conference, 2018.

Unfortunately, this new Staff title and the responsibilities accompanying it were not accepted by Sara in a follow up meeting, and thus, on Friday, December 21st, 2018, Sara resigned from her current Staff position at FUMC

We covet your prayers and your understanding as FUMC transitions through this Staff change, and we encourage you to be respectful and supportive of Sara's decision.

As FUMC continues to be Sara's Home church and simultaneously, Sara's Ministry Sponsor church, you are invited to pray for all involved in this journey, and all that these changes will bring. Your prayers for patience and a spirit of promise will be most appreciated.

Questions? Please talk to Pastor Kim, any SPRC member, and/or Dr. Robin Deese, Hartsville District Superintendent, SCUMC.

FEBRUARY
NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

Monday, January 21, 2019

Wednesdays At The First

If you have spent any amount of time reading the Gospels, you may have noticed that Jesus prayed and spent quiet time with God on a regular basis. Prayer was an important part of Jesus' routine, and it was especially critical to his relationship with God. There are more than sixty occasions in the Gospels where Jesus goes away to pray, meditate, and be alone. These "away times" appear at various junctures in Jesus' ministry, and they cross different thresholds as far as importance and focus are concerned.

These prayers of Jesus, to be clear, are not ritualistic prayers offered in service as a rabbi or teacher. Rather, these prayers, of Jesus, serve as...private conversations with God the Father. Indeed, these prayers, of Jesus are part heartbeat, part instruction, part love letter, and part plea, from Jesus, to His Father.

When we break down the sixty some odd prayers that Jesus prayed, or times that He taught on prayer, in Scripture, we discover that Jesus' prayers fall into five major focus areas:

- *A Relationship with God
- *God's wisdom and guidance
- *Unity
- *Living lives that bring glory to God
- *Consistency in prayer

These five focus areas represent the key intersections of much of Jesus' ministry...both as a conduit for how the Father is working through Him...and as a catalyst for what He intends and hopes for His disciples (us!) to become.

Beginning Wednesday, January 9th, we will commence a new study entitled..."The prayers of Jesus...and ours". Throughout our time together, we will examine how the prayers of Jesus serve as a model for our own prayers...in regard to being the primary link by which we connect with God...and with each other.

Please note that beginning January 9th, we will have a new WATF schedule: There will be no dinner, so our lesson will begin at 6pm. This will allow for choir participants to begin their rehearsal promptly at 7pm.

If you have any questions or if you desire more information, please contact Pastor Kim.

Music Ministry—Be Sure to Say...Thank You!

As most of you know, our music director, Mary Lynn Watkins, signed on with the First United Methodist Church Music Ministry approximately 2 years ago, with the understanding that it would be in an...interim capacity.

Well, unfortunately for us, Mary Lynn has made the decision to leave us at First UMC and head out toward new and exciting personal horizons! Consequently, Mary Lynn's last worship service with us will be Monday, December 24th-Christmas Eve. Please be sure to thank Mary Lynn for her service to us here at First UMC as well as for her graciousness in sharing her multiplicity of gifts with us!

Mary Lynn has generously offered to serve as "substitute musician" for us on occasion over the next month or so when/if we get into a bind. But beginning immediately, of course, we need to search for an individual to fill this staff position. Our administrative team has already begun posting "help wanted" ads, so we thought we'd share some of the position details with you, just in case you know someone who may be interested in coming to serve in ministry with us:

Position: Part time music director
Purpose: To provide overall direction for the total music program at the church. To assist the development and implementation of church worship services.
Average anticipated hours/week: 12-16

-Sundays/4 hours
-Wednesdays/4 hours
-Personal practice/prep./4 hours
-special services/4 hours

Please send information about any potential prospects to Pastor Kim at: cherawpastor@gmail.com
