*Call to Worship (responsively): Lay Reader

L: We come, for God gathers us here, with that community called faith;

P: WHERE THE HUNGRY ARE SERVED FIRST, WHERE THE THIRSTY DRINK LIFE'S WATER.

L: We come, for God welcomes us here into that home called grace:

P: WHERE THE NAKED ARE CLOTHED IN ROBES OF HOPE; WHERE THE STRANGER IS EMBRACED AS THE LONG-LOST PRODIGAL.

L: We come, for God reunites us here, sisters and brothers in that family called love:

P: WHERE THE IMPRISONED MODEL JUSTICE, WHERE THE SICK ARE CRADLED IN GOD'S PEACE.

WHAT IS AN ORGAN VOLUNTARY: In music a voluntary is a piece of music, usually for an organ, that is played as part of a church service. In English-speaking countries, the music played before and after the service is often called a 'voluntary', whether or not it is titled so.

The title 'voluntary' was often used by English composers during the late Renaissance, Baroque, and Classical periods. Originally, the term was used for a piece of organ music that was free in style, and was meant to sound improvised (the word voluntary in general means "proceeding from the will or from one's own choice or consent"). This probably grew out of the practice of church organists improvising after a service.
