CHIMING OF THE HOUR

PRELUDE

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

OPENING PRAYER

PSALTER

Psalm 25: 1-10 NRSV

To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul. O my God, in you I trust; do not let me be put to shame; do not let my enemies exult over me. Do not let those who wait for you be put to shame; Let them be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous. Make me to know your ways, O LORD; teach me your paths. Lead me in your truth, and teach me, For you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all day long.

Response:

Lead me, Lord, lead me in thy righteousness; make thy way plain before me.

Be mindful of your mercy, O LORD, and of your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.

Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me, for your goodness' sake, O LORD!

Good and upright is the LORD; therefore, he instructs sinners in the way. He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.

All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his decrees.

Response:

Lead me, Lord, lead me in thy righteousness; make thy way plain before me.

MORNING PRAYER & LORD'S PRAYER

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH - Apostles Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord: who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pointius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; the third day he rose from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

GLORIA PATRI

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be. World without end, Amen, Amen.

POSTLUDE

The flowers are placed in the sanctuary today to the glory of God and in honor of Sammy Quick on his birthday by Christie, Andrew, Sallie, Jack and Alice McLeod and Rob Stewart.

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart; naught be all else to me, save that thou art. Thou my best thought, by day or by night, waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true word; I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord; thou and thou only, first in my heart, great God of heaven, my treasure thou art.

Great God of heaven, my victory won, may I reach heaven's joys, O bright heaven's Sun! Heart of my own heart, whatever be fall, still be my vision, O Ruler of all.

"Promises Never Fail" Bethel Music

You are with me What can separate us You are for me What can stand against us Your love, it won't let go I know it won't

Darkness, shadows Have no power over me Fear is empty Shame has no authority Your love, it won't let go I know it won't

I know Your thoughts Your plans for me are good And I know You hold My future and my hope Your promises never fail Your promises never fail

Healing and freedom As You speak favor over me Faith is breaking all impossibility Your name has overcome Your name alone

For I know Your thoughts Your plans for me are good I know You hold My future and my hope Your promises never fail Your promises never fail Your promises never fail Your promises never fail

I am standing on every promise that You make I will see it come to pass in Your name, in Your name Jesus, I will trust every word I hear You say I will see it come to pass in Your name, in Your name

I am standing on every promise that You make I will see it come to pass in Your name, in Your name Jesus, I will trust every word I hear You say I will see it come to pass in Your name, in Your name In Your name

You're the God who makes a way for miraculous things Oh I believe, I believe

I am standing on every promise that You make I will see it come to pass in Your name, in Your name Jesus, I will trust every word I hear You say I will see it come to pass in Your name, in Your name I will see it come to pass in Your name, in Your name I will see it come to pass in Your name, in Your name

For I know Your thoughts Your plans for me are good I know You hold My future and my hope Your promises never fail Your promises never fail Your promises never fail Your promises never fail

A Few Words from the Pastor...

"Loss hurts. It's tough to go through, and painful to watch."1

As we approach the throne of God's grace this Lenten season, it can be a time to mourn our losses. There has been too many of those this past year. In an article on webhealing.com, TG writes in an article entitled, Taking the Grieving Heart Seriously that "we are all grieving or know someone who is."<sup>2</sup>

Right now, we are grieving as of community of faith at First United Methodist Church and as individuals. We are mourning the loss of a way of life we enjoyed both in our individual and corporate lives. We are mourning the loss of stability and the constant change required just to stay safe during this pandemic. We are mourning the deaths of too many of our church and personal family members by natural causes and the coronavirus. There are other losses that people are mourning too. The key word loss just seems inadequate to describe the heart-breaking, debilitating sorrow many people feel these days. Grief hurts. It is difficult to go through. Grief is painful to watch in others.

Grief is a process that we work through. It is important to have others who are willing to walk with us through the pain and the sorrow. Ignored or suppressed grief will not go away. It can be the thing that hardens the heart and destroys the soul. But there is hope in the power of the one who bore the cross and rose from the grave to save us. Our healer, Jesus, was no stranger to grief. Jesus showed it with his tears and the comfort he offered the sisters at the grave of Lazarus in John 11. Breaking open a heart and allowing ourselves to walk through grief to healing is a process that takes time and support.

If grief is the obstacle that is keeping the healing love of God from cleaning your heart and restoring your soul, know that you are not alone. God is present with you and there are others taking this same journey who are willing to help you. Feel free to call Pastor Debra for pastoral counseling. Check out webhealing.com for articles, book suggestion and support from others traveling this road. Open your heart and let the healing begin.

Call the church office for more information.

Nurture and Care Ministry Reaching Hearts

First United Methodist Church's Nurture and Care ministry works extremely hard to help shut-ins stay connected with our church especially during the covid-19 pandemic. Phone calls, cards, and gifts help those who cannot attend church at this time know we love them and are thinking about them. The transport ministry has provided rides for several individuals to doctor's appointments. If you would like to be contacted by one of our ministry volunteers, or if you need a ride to a doctor's appointment, please contact the church office at 843-537-7002.

Join us for virtual worship when you cannot be here in person. Sunday Morning Worship Services are recorded each week in the sanctuary. The service is available by 2 p.m. on the Sunday it is recorded. To worship with us virtually go t. Click on the tab labeled "video sermon archive." Then click on the service you want to participate in and enjoy worshipping with your church family. The most recent sermon will always be at the top of the list. ENDOWMENT FUND: Have you considered remembering the church in your will/bequests? The Endowment can grow through your special giving, if you would like to make a contribution to this fund, mark on the "for line" of your check Endowment Fund.

Your Help Needed!

We do not currently have a person on staff to provide music for worship. Volunteer musicians are providing the music for the prelude and postlude each Sunday. We are using recordings of hymns. If you can play the guitar, piano, organ we need your help to provide music for our worship service in this transition. Please contact Jenny Keefe at 843-601-2586 and offer to share your God-given talents with our church.
