A few words from the pastor...

The Lord has brought us through a pandemic, guided our work as we reopened the church, and helped us revive old ministries and begin new ones. I am confident that the mission and ministries of First Cheraw will continue while I am on leave for knee-replacement surgery. I will miss you while I am recovering from surgery and will continue to pray for all of you. I greatly appreciate the care, love, and support that our Staff Pastor Parish Relations Committee, our church staff, and church members have already extended to me.
